

THE DAILY STAR

THE WEATHER

WASHINGTON, June 11.—For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, higher pressure, southwest to southeast winds, slightly higher or stationary temperature, partly cloudy weather and possibly occasional rains.

NEWS FROM POINTS AROUND

COVINGTON. Mr. Stewart Taylor, of St. Louis, is in town.

Mike Shine is still booming for the Legislature.

The will of Joseph Robson was admitted to probate this morning.

That good old soul, Squire Mansen, leaves in a few days on a visit East.

A motion for a new trial in the Collins will case was overruled this morning.

We regret to say that our old and highly esteemed friend James Heister, Esq., died at his home in the city.

Matthew Doyle fell in the cellar-door next to Seely's paint-shop and broke a leg.

Myrtle and Friendship Lodges, K. of P., will give a grand picnic to-morrow at Parker's Grove.

Miss Marie Oster has arrived safe in Paris, France, and has entered a conservatory of music.

The two picnics recently given for the benefit of the St. John's Orphan Asylum netted $1,800.

Dick Hollywood, the light-weight pugilist, takes a benefit at Odd Fellows' Hall Saturday night.

Jack Arnold was sent to the pile for sixteen days this morning by Mayor Atchey, for disorderly conduct.

It cost J. E. Clevenger $500 to lead Carroll Campbell, a reporter, to the jail in the Circuit Court yesterday.

Harry Thompson, a lad of about sixteen years, fell through a hatchway at Moore's tobacco house yesterday and broke an arm.

Lightning yesterday evening struck the roof of St. Anthony's Church and bent it considerably, but did no damage to the church.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fackler will leave next week on their bridal tour East.

Upon their return they will reside in Cincinnati.

Montezuma Neier, a woman who is slightly demented, was remanded to jail this morning to await the disposition of her friends.

J. G. Henry and Sarah E. Cole, a runaway couple from Connersville, Ind., were married by Rev. Chas. Taylor, at the Clinton Hotel this morning.

Every sewer in town except the Main-street sewer was washed out yesterday.

That speaks well for Joe Collins as the champion sewer-builder.

A subscription is being circulated for the benefit of John Shannon, the young hero who desires to enter into the newspaper stand business. Help John along.

The thing is settled at last. Tom Woods has bought his furniture. Now look out for female snitches, unless, as rumored, he is only buying furniture for Billy Jones.

Johnny Weaver has the finest decorated home in town. In honor of the Summerfest procession, and Johnny is one of the finest boys and his schoolmates are the finest in town.

The strawberry festival of the youth league congregation of St. Patrick's church will take place next evening, on the beautiful grounds of the Arnold Home-land.

The vernacular of Paul Rensch, the prominent theatrical artist, has caused a new addition to Webster's Dictionary. It will be in a few days. It will be an improvement on Cincinnati slang.

The cathedral congregational picnic will be held at Latonia Springs instead of Levee's Grove. The buses will run to and from the Springs every fifteen minutes, and the transportation will be free.

About fifteen feet of the stone sewer that runs from Bullock street to Western row was in yesterday evening, in consequence of the storm. It will cost several days' work and considerable money to repair it.

There was a quiet little wedding at the cathedral yesterday evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Thomas Hennessey and Kate Morrissey, daughter of Thomas Morrissey, of Cleveland street. The attendants were Mr. Thomas Barrett, of Newport, and Miss Ella Wilson, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Vice-Grand Brundage in his usual solemn and appropriate manner.

The storm yesterday bent the lightning rods at St. Anthony's church, tore a portion of the Bullock-street sewer away, washed Seventh and Russell streets to such an extent as to cause a loss of $50, tore the foundation from under the house of Mrs. Gloria Morrissey, of Eleventh street, and damaged contractors' work about $100. The damage sustained is nothing to the benefit done to the country people.

Everybody and their cousins have gone to the Summerfest.

Major James Thompson, U. S. Army, who has been lying dangerously ill, was much improved this morning.

A special train over the Short Line with fifteen cars arrived here at 10:30 a. m. The train was gayly decorated with flags and festooning.

Old man Bennett, the orange vender, aged fifty-five, took a license this morning to wed a blushing young damsel named Annie Miller.

During the storm last evening the lightning struck one of the furnaces at Swift's rolling-mill and tore away the foundation from the boilers.

The Children's Union Society (colored) will give an entertainment for the benefit of the Colored Baptist Church, on Orchard street, this evening.

Relief boxes for the widows and orphans of the Post & Co. disaster have been placed on the ferry-boats, at the Post-office and Tuckler's drug-store.

The report that a young lady of Dayton had committed suicide last night by jumping off the Newport ferryboat could not be traced to a reliable source.

The O. & N. train yesterday going south on the Short Line Road ran over a man named Paul Lyons, and injured him so that he is in a critical condition.

Complaint is being made by a number of people residing in East Newport that they are prohibited from sending their children to the Bellevue school, notwithstanding they are taxed for school purposes in that town. They say that they are treated the same way in Newport.

Judge McKibben, our County Judge, delivered an address at Millersburg Female University yesterday. A commercial court Judge McKibben from that place, says: "Judge McKibben is one of the ablest citizens of this place as one of the ablest known to the history of such occasions in Kentucky."

The storm last evening was the severest experienced here for years, and the damage done in the lower part of the city by the flooding of cellars was considerable. Harris street, from Saratoga to the Licking, was for a time impassable, and everything movable within reach was washed off.

leak in the roof of Fechter's drug-store damaged goods to the amount of $40.

Pop Grinninger, of York street, is the only business man here sufficiently interested in the Summerfest to decorate his house.

The Knights of Honor will have an interesting meeting at their hall to-night. Visiting brethren from Cincinnati and Covington will be present.

James Vetterly.—Yesterday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Jefferson street, occurred the marriage of Mr. Wm. B. Jenks, of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Annie Vetterly, daughter of Mr. Thos. Wrighton, of this city. Rev. W. M. Mulholland officiated.

LEXINGTON, KY. Mr. W. F. Marrs and family left yesterday for Denver.

The barley is being harvested and is an average crop.

The Circuit Court resumes the trial of criminal cases to-day.

Only seventeen cases in the Recorder's Court Monday—three of them for felony.

The work of arching the branch under the depot and City Hall is being pushed rapidly forward.

The wheat crop, according to many who have examined the growing crop, will be from fair to good.

The following bank stock was sold on Monday last: Five shares Pacific National, $120; Fifteen shares First National, $110; Fifteen shares Gas stock, $65.

A man by the name of Dennis Caymond was arrested yesterday evening by Officer Welch on a charge of larceny, after having been charged with larceny by a woman named Miss Lizzy Thomas in 1872, whom he deserted three years since. He was again married last Thursday night to Miss Mollie Smith, of this city. He claims to have a perfect right to marry the second wife, as he had not lived with the first for three years.

HAMILTON. Mr. Harry Caldwell, a Cincinnati boy, is visiting in Hamilton.

Mrs. M. Osborne will open a grocery store on Basin street next Friday.

A large delegation of Germans from Hamilton are in Cincinnati to-day.

Mr. J. R. Chillicothe, O., is visiting his friend, Mr. Geo. Solingen.

A social in the Lecture-room of the Presbyterian Church to-morrow night.

Mr. E. M. Brown, of Griffin, Ga., is home on a visit to his mother at Sevenmile.

Mr. Wm. Dyer, of the firm of Ritchie & Dyer, is home again, after a short absence.

The Live Oaks will play the Mohawks of Cincinnati some time between the 20th and 23d of this month.

The Hamilton Light Infantry will visit the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, O., on Friday, the 14th inst.

There will be a social dance at the Front-street Garden to-morrow night (Thursday). Everybody invited.

William Miller, Esq., is out as an independent candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of Butler County.

Miss Lena Blass, who has been visiting Mrs. A. Seidensticker, returned to her home in Cincinnati yesterday.

Miss Jennie and Christian Riley are visiting in the country. They will attend the O. F. C. Col. commencement exercises at Oxford, O.

Geo. S. Ritter, of Columbus, was in the city yesterday, and in the evening received a telegram from his wife stating that he was again a father, and this time it was a daughter.

Wm. Clark, Miller and Johnson, adorn the stage at the Grand Opera House, dressed with being drunk and disorderly. Johnson, this morning, received $10 and costs; Miller, $2 and costs, or $7.50.

A span of horses belonging to Wm. Stuller twisted the pole from the wagon to which they were attached by taking a trip around a lamp-post, in front of the Court-house, yesterday.

No one is sure but what Thompson Gray will be a candidate for Sheriff of Butler County. He did not pledge himself to support the ticket and left the hall in disgust before nomination for Sheriff had been made.

Some time ago Daniel Yeagle, candidate for County Treasurer, lost a valuable red bird, and yesterday Officer Bruck arrested Wm. Field, a lad of sixteen years, on suspicion. His home has been at Thompson's boarding-house, in the First Ward, where the bird was found. It seems that Field has become a regular bird thief, having stolen canaries from the residence of Culla J. Smith, and his honor the Mayor states that he has some years ago caught the youth stealing pigeons from his yard. Mr. Yeagle was glad to get back his bird, but sorry for the boy. Before the Mayor yesterday he pleaded not guilty, and was promptly bound over in the sum of $300 to await the action of the Grand Jury next October.

SPRINGFIELD, O. Take in that $4 excursion to Niagara Falls, on Tuesday, June 17th.

Uncle Johnny Kinyore is swimming and not over a million miles from the burg either.

Mr. Frank Seaton, of West Main street, had a mare valued at $75 stolen from his stable on Sunday night.

The festival announced for St. Raphael's Hall opens next Monday night, and continues through the week.

James Pool wants $10,000 of Dr. E. M. Buckingham, who is alleged to have been in the setting of a broken arm in 1892.

Official Wilson, the tramp inspector, found lots of subjects upon the late evening trains of Tuesday and the early morning trains of to-day. It's a picnic for Temp, so why object.

Elsa Von Blumen, the entrancing pedestrian (anybody), and her family—and this takes in Miller and the evening train for Dayton on Tuesday. Miss Von Blumen walks at that place to-night and returns at an early day to walk again for our people.

Gen. Dudley, who's trial occupied the attention of the court during Monday, and whose term was the stealing of buggy and harness, the property of James Kammer, was found guilty, and on Tuesday morning was sentenced to the Penitentiary for fifteen months.

The King of the Saw Dust Circle, Von Raymond, is about to retire and engage in a new paper venture. Von says that there is more money in legs than brains, but that in his making to much of him was turned under for him too conveniently reach his aspirations.

Councilman Knott is about to shake off single blessedness and take in a partner for life. Cards are now out announcing the nuptials of J. Monroe Knott and Miss Libbie McBride for Thursday evening, June 13th, at the residence of the bride's mother, Hubert street.

Parish, the High-street fruitman, set out his circulating department as well as the boss of the Bellevue school, notwithstanding they are taxed for school purposes in that town. They say that they are treated the same way in Newport.

Judge McKibben, our County Judge, delivered an address at Millersburg Female University yesterday. A commercial court Judge McKibben from that place, says: "Judge McKibben is one of the ablest citizens of this place as one of the ablest known to the history of such occasions in Kentucky."

The storm last evening was the severest experienced here for years, and the damage done in the lower part of the city by the flooding of cellars was considerable. Harris street, from Saratoga to the Licking, was for a time impassable, and everything movable within reach was washed off.

leak in the roof of Fechter's drug-store damaged goods to the amount of $40.

Pop Grinninger, of York street, is the only business man here sufficiently interested in the Summerfest to decorate his house.

The Knights of Honor will have an interesting meeting at their hall to-night. Visiting brethren from Cincinnati and Covington will be present.

James Vetterly.—Yesterday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Jefferson street, occurred the marriage of Mr. Wm. B. Jenks, of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Annie Vetterly, daughter of Mr. Thos. Wrighton, of this city. Rev. W. M. Mulholland officiated.

LEXINGTON, KY. Mr. W. F. Marrs and family left yesterday for Denver.

The barley is being harvested and is an average crop.

The Circuit Court resumes the trial of criminal cases to-day.

Only seventeen cases in the Recorder's Court Monday—three of them for felony.

The work of arching the branch under the depot and City Hall is being pushed rapidly forward.

The wheat crop, according to many who have examined the growing crop, will be from fair to good.

The following bank stock was sold on Monday last: Five shares Pacific National, $120; Fifteen shares First National, $110; Fifteen shares Gas stock, $65.

A man by the name of Dennis Caymond was arrested yesterday evening by Officer Welch on a charge of larceny, after having been charged with larceny by a woman named Miss Lizzy Thomas in 1872, whom he deserted three years since. He was again married last Thursday night to Miss Mollie Smith, of this city. He claims to have a perfect right to marry the second wife, as he had not lived with the first for three years.

HAMILTON. Mr. Harry Caldwell, a Cincinnati boy, is visiting in Hamilton.

Mrs. M. Osborne will open a grocery store on Basin street next Friday.

A large delegation of Germans from Hamilton are in Cincinnati to-day.

Mr. J. R. Chillicothe, O., is visiting his friend, Mr. Geo. Solingen.

A social in the Lecture-room of the Presbyterian Church to-morrow night.

Mr. E. M. Brown, of Griffin, Ga., is home on a visit to his mother at Sevenmile.

Mr. Wm. Dyer, of the firm of Ritchie & Dyer, is home again, after a short absence.

The Live Oaks will play the Mohawks of Cincinnati some time between the 20th and 23d of this month.

The Hamilton Light Infantry will visit the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, O., on Friday, the 14th inst.

There will be a social dance at the Front-street Garden to-morrow night (Thursday). Everybody invited.

William Miller, Esq., is out as an independent candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of Butler County.

Miss Lena Blass, who has been visiting Mrs. A. Seidensticker, returned to her home in Cincinnati yesterday.

Miss Jennie and Christian Riley are visiting in the country. They will attend the O. F. C. Col. commencement exercises at Oxford, O.

Geo. S. Ritter, of Columbus, was in the city yesterday, and in the evening received a telegram from his wife stating that he was again a father, and this time it was a daughter.

Wm. Clark, Miller and Johnson, adorn the stage at the Grand Opera House, dressed with being drunk and disorderly. Johnson, this morning, received $10 and costs; Miller, $2 and costs, or $7.50.

A span of horses belonging to Wm. Stuller twisted the pole from the wagon to which they were attached by taking a trip around a lamp-post, in front of the Court-house, yesterday.

No one is sure but what Thompson Gray will be a candidate for Sheriff of Butler County. He did not pledge himself to support the ticket and left the hall in disgust before nomination for Sheriff had been made.

Some time ago Daniel Yeagle, candidate for County Treasurer, lost a valuable red bird, and yesterday Officer Bruck arrested Wm. Field, a lad of sixteen years, on suspicion. His home has been at Thompson's boarding-house, in the First Ward, where the bird was found. It seems that Field has become a regular bird thief, having stolen canaries from the residence of Culla J. Smith, and his honor the Mayor states that he has some years ago caught the youth stealing pigeons from his yard. Mr. Yeagle was glad to get back his bird, but sorry for the boy. Before the Mayor yesterday he pleaded not guilty, and was promptly bound over in the sum of $300 to await the action of the Grand Jury next October.

SPRINGFIELD, O. Take in that $4 excursion to Niagara Falls, on Tuesday, June 17th.

Uncle Johnny Kinyore is swimming and not over a million miles from the burg either.

Mr. Frank Seaton, of West Main street, had a mare valued at $75 stolen from his stable on Sunday night.

The festival announced for St. Raphael's Hall opens next Monday night, and continues through the week.

James Pool wants $10,000 of Dr. E. M. Buckingham, who is alleged to have been in the setting of a broken arm in 1892.

Official Wilson, the tramp inspector, found lots of subjects upon the late evening trains of Tuesday and the early morning trains of to-day. It's a picnic for Temp, so why object.

Elsa Von Blumen, the entrancing pedestrian (anybody), and her family—and this takes in Miller and the evening train for Dayton on Tuesday. Miss Von Blumen walks at that place to-night and returns at an early day to walk again for our people.

Gen. Dudley, who's trial occupied the attention of the court during Monday, and whose term was the stealing of buggy and harness, the property of James Kammer, was found guilty, and on Tuesday morning was sentenced to the Penitentiary for fifteen months.

The King of the Saw Dust Circle, Von Raymond, is about to retire and engage in a new paper venture. Von says that there is more money in legs than brains, but that in his making to much of him was turned under for him too conveniently reach his aspirations.

Councilman Knott is about to shake off single blessedness and take in a partner for life. Cards are now out announcing the nuptials of J. Monroe Knott and Miss Libbie McBride for Thursday evening, June 13th, at the residence of the bride's mother, Hubert street.

Parish, the High-street fruitman, set out his circulating department as well as the boss of the Bellevue school, notwithstanding they are taxed for school purposes in that town. They say that they are treated the same way in Newport.

Judge McKibben, our County Judge, delivered an address at Millersburg Female University yesterday. A commercial court Judge McKibben from that place, says: "Judge McKibben is one of the ablest citizens of this place as one of the ablest known to the history of such occasions in Kentucky."

The storm last evening was the severest experienced here for years, and the damage done in the lower part of the city by the flooding of cellars was considerable. Harris street, from Saratoga to the Licking, was for a time impassable, and everything movable within reach was washed off.

leak in the roof of Fechter's drug-store damaged goods to the amount of $40.

Pop Grinninger, of York street, is the only business man here sufficiently interested in the Summerfest to decorate his house.

The Knights of Honor will have an interesting meeting at their hall to-night. Visiting brethren from Cincinnati and Covington will be present.

James Vetterly.—Yesterday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Jefferson street, occurred the marriage of Mr. Wm. B. Jenks, of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Annie Vetterly, daughter of Mr. Thos. Wrighton, of this city. Rev. W. M. Mulholland officiated.

LEXINGTON, KY. Mr. W. F. Marrs and family left yesterday for Denver.

The barley is being harvested and is an average crop.

The Circuit Court resumes the trial of criminal cases to-day.

Only seventeen cases in the Recorder's Court Monday—three of them for felony.

The work of arching the branch under the depot and City Hall is being pushed rapidly forward.

The wheat crop, according to many who have examined the growing crop, will be from fair to good.

The following bank stock was sold on Monday last: Five shares Pacific National, $120; Fifteen shares First National, $110; Fifteen shares Gas stock, $65.

A man by the name of Dennis Caymond was arrested yesterday evening by Officer Welch on a charge of larceny, after having been charged with larceny by a woman named Miss Lizzy Thomas in 1872, whom he deserted three years since. He was again married last Thursday night to Miss Mollie Smith, of this city. He claims to have a perfect right to marry the second wife, as he had not lived with the first for three years.

HAMILTON. Mr. Harry Caldwell, a Cincinnati boy, is visiting in Hamilton.

Mrs. M. Osborne will open a grocery store on Basin street next Friday.

A large delegation of Germans from Hamilton are in Cincinnati to-day.

Mr. J. R. Chillicothe, O., is visiting his friend, Mr. Geo. Solingen.

A social in the Lecture-room of the Presbyterian Church to-morrow night.

Mr. E. M. Brown, of Griffin, Ga., is home on a visit to his mother at Sevenmile.

Mr. Wm. Dyer, of the firm of Ritchie & Dyer, is home again, after a short absence.

The Live Oaks will play the Mohawks of Cincinnati some time between the 20th and 23d of this month.

leak in the roof of Fechter's drug-store damaged goods to the amount of $40.

Pop Grinninger, of York street, is the only business man here sufficiently interested in the Summerfest to decorate his house.

The Knights of Honor will have an interesting meeting at their hall to-night. Visiting brethren from Cincinnati and Covington will be present.

James Vetterly.—Yesterday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Jefferson street, occurred the marriage of Mr. Wm. B. Jenks, of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Annie Vetterly, daughter of Mr. Thos. Wrighton, of this city. Rev. W. M. Mulholland officiated.

LEXINGTON, KY. Mr. W. F. Marrs and family left yesterday for Denver.

The barley is being harvested and is an average crop.

The Circuit Court resumes the trial of criminal cases to-day.

Only seventeen cases in the Recorder's Court Monday—three of them for felony.

The work of arching the branch under the depot and City Hall is being pushed rapidly forward.

The wheat crop, according to many who have examined the growing crop, will be from fair to good.

The following bank stock was sold on Monday last: Five shares Pacific National, $120; Fifteen shares First National, $110; Fifteen shares Gas stock, $65.

A man by the name of Dennis Caymond was arrested yesterday evening by Officer Welch on a charge of larceny, after having been charged with larceny by a woman named Miss Lizzy Thomas in 1872, whom he deserted three years since. He was again married last Thursday night to Miss Mollie Smith, of this city. He claims to have a perfect right to marry the second wife, as he had not lived with the first for three years.

HAMILTON. Mr. Harry Caldwell, a Cincinnati boy, is visiting in Hamilton.

Mrs. M. Osborne will open a grocery store on Basin street next Friday.

A large delegation of Germans from Hamilton are in Cincinnati to-day.

Mr. J. R. Chillicothe, O., is visiting his friend, Mr. Geo. Solingen.

A social in the Lecture-room of the Presbyterian Church to-morrow night.

Mr. E. M. Brown, of Griffin, Ga., is home on a visit to his mother at Sevenmile.

Mr. Wm. Dyer, of the firm of Ritchie & Dyer, is home again, after a short absence.

The Live Oaks will play the Mohawks of Cincinnati some time between the 20th and 23d of this month.

The Hamilton Light Infantry will visit the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, O., on Friday, the 14th inst.

There will be a social dance at the Front-street Garden to-morrow night (Thursday). Everybody invited.

William Miller, Esq., is out as an independent candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of Butler County.

Miss Lena Blass, who has been visiting Mrs. A. Seidensticker, returned to her home in Cincinnati yesterday.

Miss Jennie and Christian Riley are visiting in the country. They will attend the O. F. C. Col. commencement exercises at Oxford, O.

Geo. S. Ritter, of Columbus, was in the city yesterday, and in the evening received a telegram from his wife stating that he was again a father, and this time it was a daughter.

Wm. Clark, Miller and Johnson, adorn the stage at the Grand Opera House, dressed with being drunk and disorderly. Johnson, this morning, received $10 and costs; Miller, $2 and costs, or $7.50.

A span of horses belonging to Wm. Stuller twisted the pole from the wagon to which they were attached by taking a trip around a lamp-post, in front of the Court-house, yesterday.

No one is sure but what Thompson Gray will be a candidate for Sheriff of Butler County. He did not pledge himself to support the ticket and left the hall in disgust before nomination for Sheriff had been made.